

"Dismissal" from the College because of deficient academic, clinical, or professional behavioral performance or for failing two courses or for failing the same course twice. This does not include failure of electives. A motion to dismiss a student must be passed by a majority vote of the Student Evaluation Committee. Applies to students matriculated as of Fall 2016 or later.